The Bilingual Authorization Program at California Polytechnic State University (Cal Poly), will allow holders to provide instruction to English Learners in Spanish. The courses are offered at a time that meets the needs of:

- K-12 teachers who are interested in adding on this authorization to teach in both Spanish/English, and
- Students who will be completing their teacher preparation program through Cal Poly's School of Education.

Coursework will begin in the Fall and end in the Spring.

Ideal candidates for this program are proficient in reading, writing, and speaking Spanish.

Program Requirements:

1. Passage of CSET - Spanish III (next offerings March 7, May 2, and July 11, 2015)
2. EDUC 433 - Foundations of Bilingual Education (4 units, Fall 2015)
3. EDUC 423 - Bilingual Literacy (4 units, Winter 2016)
4. EDUC 405 - Social, Historical, and Cultural Influences on Latino/a Students in Education. (4 units, Spring 2016)
